

The Choir of Clare College, Cambridge

Graham Ross, director

"This really is exceptional singing - immaculately balanced and blended, with text always at its heart. Ross and his young singers have given us quite the gift in this series. I can't wait to hear what they do next." GRAMOPHONE

"extraordinary and captivating...a world-class choral group" THE STRAITS TIMES

"A tour de force." CLASSICAL MUSIC MAGAZINE

Since the founding of a mixed voice choir in 1972, the Choir of Clare College has gained an international reputation as one of the world's leading university choirs. In addition to its primary function of leading services three times a week in the College chapel, the Choir keeps an active schedule recording, broadcasting, and performing. Former directors have included John Rutter and Timothy Brown. Under the direction of Graham Ross, Director of Music since 2010, it has been praised for its consistently 'thrilling' and 'outstanding' performances worldwide.

MUSIC FOR THE CHURCH YEAR
