Stile Antico is firmly established as one of the world's most accomplished and innovative vocal ensembles. Working without a conductor, its twelve members have thrilled audiences on four continents with their fresh and vibrant performances of Renaissance polyphony. Its numerous recordings for Harmonia Mundi have earned accolades including the Gramophone Award for Early Music, Diapason d'or de l'année, Edison Klassiek Award, and Preis der deutschen Schallplattenkritik. The group has received three GRAMMY® nominations and performed live at the 60th GRAMMY® Awards at Madison Square Garden.

Stile Antico has appeared at many of Europe's most important venues, including the Wigmore Hall, Amsterdam Concertgebouw, and Leipzig Gewandhaus, and regularly features at such prestigious festivals as the BBC Proms and the Antwerp, Utrecht and York Early Music Festivals. The group tours regularly to the US and Canada, and has appeared at the Cervantino festival in Mexico. Stile Antico recently gave its debut South American performances in Colombia, and during the current season makes its first visits to Hong Kong, Macau and South Korea.

Stile Antico's members rehearse and perform as chamber musicians, each contributing artistically to the musical results. In addition to its core repertoire, the group has premiered works by John McCabe, Huw Watkins, and Nico Muhly, and appeared with such diverse collaborators as Fretwork, the Folger Consort, Marino Fomenti, B'Rock, and Sting. Stile Antico regularly leads courses at Dartington International Summer School and continues to expand its work with younger people thanks to the support of the Stile Antico Foundation.
