3. What we may collect

We may collect and process the following data about you:

- Information you put into forms or surveys on our sites at any time
- A record of any correspondence between us
- Details of your visits to our sites and the resources you use

4. Mailing lists

Information that we collect may include your name, email address and preferences for how you would like us to communicate with you. We will use this information to:

- Provide information on events, products and services that you request, or (with your consent) that we think may interest you
- Present our website content effectively to you.
- If you don't want us to use your personal data for any of the other reasons set out in this section, you can let us know at any time by contacting us at info@ikonarts.com and we will delete your data from our systems.

5. Where we store your data

When you give us personal information, such as for joining our mailing lists, this information will be recorded in electronic form and is subject to appropriate protection from loss, and from unauthorised access or change.

We only keep your personal data for as long as we need to in order to use it as described above, and/or for as long as we have your permission to keep it.

6. Sharing your information

We will not disclose any of the personal information you have given us except as required by law and in the following cases:

- We may contract with third parties to supply services to you on our behalf. These may include payment processing, search engine facilities, advertising and marketing. In some cases, the third parties may require access to some or all of your data (such as a mailing list).
- We may share information with businesses operating within the Edition Peters Group in the European Union where necessary
- If any of your data is required for the above cases, we will take all reasonable steps to ensure that your data will be handled safely, securely, and in accordance with your rights, our obligations, and the obligations of the third party under GDPR and the law.

7. Your rights and your personal data

You may write to us to ask that the information we hold about you be disclosed to you, be amended in any way you choose, or be deleted. We will confirm in writing (including by email) in due course that the action you have requested has been carried out. The only exception to this principle is where we are obliged by law to continue to hold specific information. The address for writing to us about personal information is 2-6 Baches Street, London, N1 6DN or email info@ikonarts.com
